

I completely support the ARRL's position in this petition with the exception of the retention of Morse Code testing for the Amateur Extra license. Since the code requirement has been eliminated by the international body, I see no reason to deny operators who do not wish to operate this mode a chance to upgrade their licenses to the highest level in furtherance of the art of radio. Thank you for your attention to this matter.